

Library Copyright Emotional Support Group – bringing disparate departments together and developing confidence for change (through copyright) during times of strife

Bridget McCall and Kirsty Knowles, University of Dundee, Library Academic and Cultural Services

Premise

New members of staff at the University of Dundee

Working with copyright in our roles

University legal team – low priority

Desire to not be 'copyright person'

Noticed outdated copyright guidance (2006!)

Icepops 2024 – risk managing approach

Methods

---

Group mapping of departmental copyright knowledge/needs

---

Pecha Kucha sessions

---

Practice space – training and presentation

---

Presentation of scholarly work

---

Setup of knowledgebase – online support for directorate

Outcomes so far...

Co-development of collaborative groups framework for UoD working and task and finish groups

Review and update of all copyright webpages and documentation

Copyright Wiki setup – UoD scenario

Improved confidence in copyright

Interdepartmental relations

Future

Project to revamp copyright online information for academic staff and students – making material more accessible via multiple formats

Established library-wide copyright service including frontline service

Continue to develop other groups according to framework
- OER

Continue to develop internal Wiki